Delay the funny. When you have a funny quip or idea or joke, it's hard not to share it right away. But the best-placed pun is actually at the end. Put the funny part at the end of the sentence. For example, if the fact it's a cat is the surprise or twist in your story, don't say, "There was a cat in the box." Say, "In that box was a ...

The more you practice speaking, the more comfortable you will become with talking with a retainer. You should be able to talk with relative ease within one month to two months of getting your retainer. Your tongue will eventually adapt to the retainer. If you practice a lot, using all types of words, you will eventually be able to speak normally.
