I forgot how much I loved book 3 Girls In Pants. This book just hit me in the feels. In Girls In Pants we catch up with our girls Lena, Carmen, Tibby and Bridget the summer before college. These girls aren't girls anymore they're adults even if they don't wanna be or act like it. I think I've come to the conclusion that Lena is unnecessary.

This third book has funnier and livelier characters than the first and second. This book gave a better characterization of the different girls than the first two. The depth of their friendship and concern for one another other is vividly explained, as well as their consideration for the people who crossed their lives.

This is the third sisterhood book that I have finished reading so far. My favorite one, however, has been the first one because it is very descriptive and is where all the action of the Traveling Pants takes place. However the third book is basically about how Lena, Bridget, Carmen, and Tibby are getting ready to go to college.
