The Gardner Heist Ulrich Boser

Shortly after midnight on March 18, 1990, two men dressed as police officers broke into the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston and stole 13 masterpieces including five Degas, three Rembrandts, and a Vermeer. The plundered works are worth an estimated $500 million, and the theft remains the largest unsolved art heist in history. Detective Harold Smith worked the theft for years, and after his death, reporter Ulrich Boser decided to pick up where he left off.
